

YVES HAYAUX DU TILLY

Yves, better known as the 'Mexican Lawyer with a French name on Lombard Street' is the managing partner of the London office of Mexican independent Law Firm, Nader, Hayaux & Goebel (www.nhg.com.mx), the only Mexican law firm with an office in London and splits his time between London and Mexico.

Since 1991, Yves has been helping foreign investors enter the Mexican market, and advising them in Mexican related operations and transactions. Yves is recognised as a leading lawyer in corporate, mergers and acquisitions, banking and finance and has substantial experience in insurance related matters where he regularly handles high-end transactions and complex claims for leading insurance and reinsurance companies operating in Mexico and Latin America.

Yves led the companies that founded the Mexican Chamber of Commerce in Great Britain (www.mexicanchamberofcommerce.co.uk) in 2011, the first Mexican Chamber of Commerce to be established in Europe and is a co-founder of the also London based LatinAmerican Forum (www.latinamericanforum.org.uk).

Yves lives in Putney with his wife Maria and their four children.