

Biography

Julianne Lee
Managing Director, Group Public Affairs

Julianne joined HSBC as Managing Director in May 2018. She oversees international engagement with a focus on China, Mexico and Canada. Her policy areas include global markets and sustainable finance.

Julianne joined from MetLife, a US headquartered global life insurance company where she established and led the government relations function in the EMEA region and served on the regional President's management committee. Prior to MetLife, she set up the European public affairs function at Lehman Brothers International in 2006 and at Nomura International in 2008.

Before moving to financial services, Julianne worked for Laura D Tyson, Dean of London Business School and former chair of the White House Council of Economic Advisors. From 2000-2003, she set up and ran a CEO-led technology task force at the World Economic Forum based in Geneva, known for its annual meeting in Davos, Switzerland.

Julianne has an MA from Georgetown University and a BA from Cal Poly San Luis Obispo. She has lived in San Francisco, Washington DC, Geneva and Paris, and currently resides in the UK with her husband and two children
